Dr. Marcus Stoodley is a Professor of Neurosurgery at the Australian School of Advanced Medicine, Macquarie University, winner of the 2012 John Mitchell Crouch Fellowship; the premier research award of the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons and leader in Syringomyelia & Chiari Malformation physiology research.

Our own Dr. Renée Reynolds, from UB Neurosurgery, will also present on how pediatric CM/SM patients often differ from the typical adult patients. WNY is fortunate to have Dr. Reynolds, who was fellowship trained by one of the nation's leading CM/SM specialists, practicing right here in Buffalo.
